

PEGASUS

SAN ANDRÉS

Model: Torpedo
Ring Gauge: 52
Length: 6 inches

In the first third of the Pegasus, the initial draw seduces you with a sweetness that ignites the palate. I can't help but appreciate the gentle notes of sweet and spicy nuttiness. The construction is flawless, with a San Andres wrapper that whispers sweet promises of a rich, indulgent experience.

Moving into the second third, the Pegasus takes on a woody, earthy character. A tad bit rustic, yet profoundly comforting. The toasted sweetness seems to linger and it's in this segment where the black pepper steps in, gentle but assertive. It adds a hint of intrigue to the story, leaving you wanting more.

Now, as we reach the final third, the flavours have intertwined, creating a harmonious balance of sweet and rich notes infused with honeyed warmth. The construction and burn have been impeccable throughout. The intensity ramps up and its time to get my trusty cigar dagger. No we are in nub territory, I find myself enjoying the last few puffs of this fantastic cigar.

The Pegasus by Italo Dominican is a standout in cigar craftsmanship, transcending the ordinary and revealing a world of sweet and spice, woody and earthy pleasures, sweet toasted nuttiness and a black pepper infusion. It's a blend of flavours that lulls you into a state of pure relaxation and leaves you craving more. So, let the Pegasus be your guide through a truly stellar adventure.

Written by Kristofer Lewis | S Loves Cigars